A photograph of a classroom. A female teacher with dark hair, wearing an orange cardigan over a dark top, sits at a blue desk. She is smiling and looking towards a young girl. The girl, Hannah, is standing and waving. She has dark hair and is wearing a green t-shirt and a pink backpack. The background features a purple bulletin board with various papers and drawings, including one that says 'We used to be made of mud and turned it into...'. There are also educational charts on the wall, including one with the letters 's', 'ss', 'c', 'ch' and another with a calendar for the month of April. A speech bubble from the teacher says 'Hello, Hannah. Nice to see you.' and a speech bubble from the student says 'Hello, Miss Page. Nice to see you, too.'

First Friends

*first for English, first for fun,
first for young children*

First Friends is a three-level course that makes the first years of learning English motivating and fun.

- The special phonics program is ideal for building letter-recognition skills and letter formation.
- Everyday English is taught through the context of important social values such as learning to share.
- Practical cross-curricular lessons link with other subjects such as math and science.
- Engaging activities focus on making connections and seeing patterns, improving critical thinking skills.
